Some Will Go the Extra Mile

Unlike most people, Marty O'Brien loves long car trips. In fact, he often tries to make them longer.

5 Marty is a member of the Extra Miler Club. His goal is to visit every one of the 3,145 counties in the United States. So far, he has visited 1,441. "On every trip," he says, "I 10 look for new places to go."

That's the philosophy of the people in the Extra Miler Club. The club began in 1973, and it now has 207 members. Twelve of these 15 members have visited every county. They have even traveled by seaplane to get to counties in Alaska that are hard to reach. Some others have been to every state.

20 Roy Carson is one of the people who started the club. In 1985 he traveled to his last county. But he didn't take any photographs on his trips. So now he is trying again.
25 This time he is taking photographs of himself in front of each county sign. So far, he has covered 538,427 miles. "It's just as much fun the second time around, but it's a lot 30 more expensive," he says. Gas cost just 39 cents a gallon when he first started—in 1949.

county: a geographical and political division within a state in the U.S.

My wife and I have ^{traveled} ~~travel~~ as much as possible since we retired. We've visited cousins in Australia, and we been to New Zealand twice. We've also went on safari in Africa. We've been to Europe a lot. Gina and I has spent time in Paris, in Madrid, and in several cities in Italy. We haven't to Eastern Europe yet, though. We hope to visit Prague and Budapest next year.

My sister Betty was born in the United States, and she has never traveled outside the country—except once when she was very young. But she have been to a lot of places in the U.S. She has visit most of the national parks: the Grand Canyon, Yellowstone, Yosemite, and so on. She has been to all of the big cities, too. In fact, she is lived in four different cities in the U.S.: New York, Boston, Los Angeles, and San Francisco. I think she seen more of her own country than most people.

Writing

On a separate sheet of paper, write a paragraph about your travel experiences. Use the present perfect or the simple past as needed.

1. In your first few sentences, describe your travel experience in general.
2. In the rest of the paragraph, describe one or more trips in particular. Use the questions below to help you write your paragraph:
 - How many countries or cities have you visited?
 - Have you visited any places more than once?
 - Where did you go on a recent trip?
 - Think of places you haven't visited. Which ones would you like to visit?

I haven't traveled very much outside my country, but I have visited different areas in my country. For example, I've been to Chiang Mai in northern Thailand several times. My last visit to Chiang Mai was last year. . . .
